

CHICAGO TITLE IS GOING GREEN!

Let Chicago Title put technology to work for you by emailing your property profiles and documents.

Chicago Title wants to help the environment by offering electronic delivery of documents and property profiles instead of the typical messenger delivery.

Electronic Delivery Helps our Planet by:
Saving Time, Trees, Toner, and Gas – eliminating smog, hydrocarbon emissions and traffic congestion.

We can all reduce waste and save resources by using electronic delivery of documents whenever possible.

And you can receive your documents faster!
